

RON CASTAN YOUNG HUMANITARIAN AWARD 2015 WINNER DEAN COHEN

Dean developed a passion for working with people with special needs after a few life-changing years working in various roles in the disability sector. One of his most memorable experiences was accompanying a group of ten people with special needs to Israel in 2010.

In 2014, Dean founded Camp Sababa Melbourne to provide fun experiences for people with special needs, respite for families, and disability care training for young adults.

Dean has also recently founded The Best Bunch, an online flower business that provides employment opportunities for people with special needs.

Dean has a degree in marketing and philosophy and is a recent graduate of the Young Social Pioneers program of the Foundation for Young Australians.
